BELCO WELCOMES THREE ASSOCIATE VOLUNTEERS

HARRISBURG, PA (OCTOBER 5, 2025) – Belco Community Credit Union, headquartered in Harrisburg, PA, recently appointed Deborah Garland, Andrew Myers, and Timothy Sustak as Associate Volunteers, who will work closely with its Board of Directors and Supervisory Committee to grow the credit union and provide exceptional service to its nearly 75,000 members.

“We are excited to welcome our three new associate volunteers to help guide the future direction of our established community credit union,” said Amey Sgrignoli, president and CEO of Belco. “I am confident their individual experience and expertise will prove valuable as we continue our commitment to strengthening both our members’ financial well-being and the stability of central Pennsylvania communities.”

Deborah Garland held various leadership roles in Enrollment, Billing, and the Customer Call Center with Capital Blue Cross for 40 years, before retiring in 2017. She most recently led the growth of a Medicare client base for Benefit Connections in Carlisle, which serves as a resource for Medicare recipients to understand their options and select their insurance coverage.

Andrew Myers is the Director of Finance and Administration for Hope Walks, an international Non-Governmental Organization (NGO) that provides clubfoot treatment in 14 countries in Africa and Latin America. He has been with Hope Walks for the last 10 years, having started off overseeing the programs in the Latin America region. He previously lived and worked in Bolivia for four years in children’s social projects as well as other short-term assignments in Haiti and the Philippines. Andrew studied International Relations at Lake Forest College, with minors in French and Spanish. He recently completed an MBA through Shippensburg University. Andrew serves on a small non-profit board (Nacer USA) that does work in Bolivia and on the Missions Committee at Gettysburg Foursquare Church.

Timothy Sustak is Senior Vice President & Chief Treasury Officer for Vizo Financial Corporate Credit Union. In this role, he is responsible for Vizo's investment portfolio credit management, lending operation, member lending support products, security safekeeping operation, as well as leading the liquidity management efforts. Prior to his current role, Timothy held progressively responsible positions at Vizo, including Chief Credit Officer and Senior Vice President of Investments & Treasury. He holds an MBA from Lebanon Valley College, as well as a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration with a dual emphasis in Finance and Management from the Pennsylvania State University.

Belco's Board of Directors and Supervisory Committee are comprised of member-volunteers who dedicate their time and expertise to the betterment of the credit union.

A full copy of Belco's 2024 Annual Report, highlighting the credit union's accomplishments and financial reports, can be found at www.belco.org/annualreport.
