HARRISBURG, PA (OCTOBER 5, 2025) – The Board of Directors of Belco Community Credit Union announce several recent volunteer status updates. Beverly Lilley retired after 23 years of service; Gina Bond resigned after serving on the Supervisory Committee for the past nine years; and, with more than 10 years of service to the credit union, Richard Myxter was named Director Emeritus. All updates were effective at the close of the Annual Meeting held in April 2025.

“On behalf of the Board of Directors, I would like to thank these individuals for their dedication and years of valuable service to Belco,” commented Terry M. Hessler, Board Chair. “Thanks to their thoughtful leadership, Belco has continued to grow and best serve its members and the community.”

Prior to joining Belco’s Board of Directors, Lilley served on its Supervisory Committee for 12 years, several as the Chair. As a member of the Board, Lilley served as Treasurer and Secretary and on several working committees, including Education, Annual Meeting, and Compensation.

During her tenure, Bond served as Vice Chair of the Supervisory Committee and on the Compensation and Education Committees.

Myxter joined the Supervisory Committee in 2014, later serving on the Board of Directors from 2016 to 2025. His board tenure included serving as Secretary and Vice Chair and working committees focused on Education and Compensation. He is a Certified Credit Union Executive (CCUE) through the Credit Union National Association and holds the honor of Outstanding Volunteer in Technical Assistance from the World Council of Credit Unions.

“Rick’s commitment to the credit union movement and passion for Belco are such an asset to our organization and our mission of meeting the financial needs of the communities we serve,” said

Amey Sgrignoli, President & CEO. “We are grateful for his continued support and service and are pleased to present him with the distinguished honor of Director Emeritus.”

Belco’s Board of Directors and Supervisory Committee are comprised of member-volunteers who dedicate their time and expertise to the betterment of the credit union.
